INTRODUCTION

The Compass Rose Society

Overview of the Society

The mission of the Compass Rose Society is to support the programs and ministries of the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Anglican Consultative Council (ACC), which directs the goals and activities of the Anglican Communion. The Society provides this support by building a member community of Anglican people and organizations (including parishes, dioceses, seminaries, etc), which enthusiastically support the mission and ministries of the ACC.

Member contributions are made annually to provide support for these projects as well as the communications efforts of the ACC. The Compass Rose Society also strives to build strong relationships within the Anglican Communion by participating in mission visits and study visits (approved by the Archbishop of Canterbury and led by the Secretary General of the Anglican Communion) to dioceses throughout the Communion.

From these visits mission projects in need of funding often arise and from time to time the Compass Rose Society (CRS) also is requested to contribute to special projects by the Archbishop of Canterbury. Society members may then choose to contribute to these projects individually, supplementing any support provided by CRS itself.
Funding Priorities

The Compass Rose Society helps to generate much-needed funds through new memberships of individuals, groups of people (who form a chapter), parishes, dioceses, provinces, and organizations throughout the world, as well as gifts from existing members. The Society designates some of these contributions for various mission projects approved by its board of directors with the support of the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Characteristics of projects that would be considered eligible for approval by the CRS include the following:

- Addresses an important humanitarian or spiritual need.
- Supports efforts too large for a local diocese to fund alone.
- Serves a large population in the diocese or community.
- Provides long-term benefits to local populations such as expansion, equipping and related personnel training for medical and health facilities.
- Provides support for vital education needs, including providing resources to dioceses and institutions to allow them to provide scholarships for needy students or theological training for Anglican/Episcopal clergy.
- Assists in rebuilding or renovating churches in exceptional circumstances.

Some examples of projects supported by the CRS are:

a) CRS members have supported a high school in Southern Malawi
b) A CRS parish supports Christ Church Episcopal Church in Nazareth
c) CRS donors designated funds for Christ Church Anglican Basic School in Cape Coast, Ghana
d) A member assisted in funding the purchase of a pulverizer for a garbage dump ministry in Recife, Brazil
e) A grant to educate clergy in Rwanda in the skills of reconciliation
f) Funds to build and operate a rural medical clinic in Kaduna, Nigeria
g) Support for HIV/AIDS community ministries in rural Highveld, South Africa
h) CRS donors committed funding for the Ahli Arab Hospital in Gaza City, Palestine.

Projects that would be ineligible for funding consideration are the following:

- Since start-up medical ventures are faced with high risks and costs, the Board does not accept applications from these types of beneficiaries without sponsorship from a Diocesan Bishop
- Individual applications for financial assistance
- Projects more appropriately funded and supported by the local government or other institutions
- Administrative and/or operating expenses
- Support to repay loans or establish reserve funds, including endowments
- Local government projects such as community projects, parks and gardens, playgrounds and athletic fields, swimming pools, monuments and memorials
- Construction of residential housing, and funding to purchase land and/or buildings
